

Renewing Your 2016 Membership Today

Your membership is your passport into the world of green economics academia, policy-making, campaigning and business through our international network. Your support makes our work of transforming economics possible, and we greatly value your commitment. Please renew your membership by emailing membership@greeneconomicsinstitute.com. Thank you for your support.

Regular Membership Benefits include:	International Expert Membership Benefits include:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Join National Chapter of Green Economics Institute ● Invitations to Speak at International Events ● Receive Membership Newsletters ● Invitations to Publish in Books and Journals ● Invitations to participate in special book launches and committees ● Reductions for places at our regular award winning training on latest current topics ● Regular membership emails updating you on current events ● Access to our careers network ● Excellent Discounts on Books, Events and more ● Networking events for members to meet other fascinating, international and multidisciplinary people who are also members of one of the fastest growing global networks. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● All Regular Membership Benefits plus: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Join International Council of Green Economists and National Chapter of Green Economics Institute - Invitations to Join International Delegations and Committees and Receive Invitations to Speak at International Events - Apply to Join International Expert Panels - Apply to Join Academic Journal Editorial Boards - Invitations to Publish in Books and Journals, with Greater Discounts on Books, Events and More - The Green Economist: our internationally popular membership networking magazine, enjoyed globally. - Preference for other openings and launches and speeches in parliaments around the world - Invitations for speeches and workshops of your interest. - Preferential publishing & consultancy support - Member representation at our advisory board meetings held regularly in Oxford and London. - Invitations to join our team of researchers/ consultants, as we bid for work from EU and other agencies, including government & business

